

Roll up, roll up . . .

The circus is coming to town – well, to Brisbane's Woolloongabba!

Rehearsals are again in full swing for the Brisbane Family Law Centre's annual pantomime, which has become a firmly established charity fundraiser.

This year's cast of about 40 again includes well known family law solicitors, barristers, accountants, family consultants and mediators.

Last year's Wild West pantomime raised more than $15,000 for the Queensland Institute of Medical Research in honour of a colleague who passed away from melanoma. This year's show will raise funds for Aunties and Uncles Queensland, an early intervention and prevention program offering mentoring for vulnerable and disadvantaged children.

The Brisbane Family Law Centre Circus Pantomime will begin at 7pm on Saturday 19 October at the Princess Theatre, Woolloongabba. For tickets or more information, follow the pantomime link at brisbanefamilylawcentre.com.au.

Pirate plunder to worthy cause

A band of motley pirates has contributed $11,500 to SANDBAG, the Sandgate and Bracken Ridge Action Group, which offers support to victims of domestic violence. The money was raised from patrons at the Brisbane Family Law Centre (BFLC) annual Christmas pantomime, Peter Pan the Pirate Panto, held at the Princess Theatre, Woolloongabba, on December 10. Solicitors, barristers and judges took to the stage in piratical attire proclaiming fun-ahoy for the one-night-only performance.
